INFORMATION

Purpose.—The purpose of this Interdenominational Youth Conference is to inspire young people to live a victorious, red-blooded, enthusiastic Christian life, not out of a sense of duty but of privilege, as the result of a heart transforming experience with Christ. Discussion Groups and Vital Messages will point the way to this Christ, in whom abides the power to be delivered from sin and selfishness and to be effective and powerful in service—the abundant life.

Time and Place.
—Friday, March 19th, 7:00 p.m. to Sunday, March 21st, 4:00 p.m., at Taylor University, Upland, Indiana.

Accommodations.
—Meals will be served in the college dining hall at a minimum price of five meals for $1.75. (Three on Saturday and two on Sunday.) Rooming accommodations will be provided in the dormitories at the rate of 25¢ per night. Mattresses will be provided on the beds and whatever else is desired must be furnished by the guests themselves.

Registration.—A registration fee of 25¢ must be paid by all attending the conference. This fee and the blank on the back of this folder should be sent to us a week before the opening of the conference. If you need more registration blanks, these will be mailed to you, or send the same information on another piece of paper.

Transportation.—Due to the gas ration, we would suggest that you be patriotic and fill up your car with friends. If you must use the buses to either Marion or Hartford City, there will be cars to bring you on to Taylor. Come when you can and for as long as you can.

SPECIAL FEATURES

Speakers.—The main speaker of this year's conference will be Dr. Windsor, pastor of Columbia Methodist Church, Cincinnati, Ohio. This Spirit-filled man of God was Youth Conference speaker two years ago and his ministry was a means of blessing to all who were privileged to hear him. His vibrant spiritual enthusiasm coupled with a dynamic young people's appeal, will make each message a conference highlight.

Dr. Robert Lee Stuart, President of Taylor University, will speak. Other qualified young people's speakers will be heard at the various services.

Music.—The Conference is always remembered for the abundance of good Gospel music. Special numbers will be provided by the various students and organizations of the University.

Discussion Groups.—Always a source of interest and spiritual help, the discussion groups belong in a class of their own. Vital subjects dealing with Salvation, the Spirit-Filled Life, and Life Vocations will be frankly treated.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

Pray.—The earnest intercession of God's people in behalf of this work will be a vital factor in the success of the conference. Remember, 'More things are wrought by prayer than this world dreams of.'

Advertise.—Tell your pastor, your friends, your neighbors. Pass around the publicity material which you have received.

Come.—Plan now to let nothing keep you from this spiritual feast. Make plans early: arrange a car load or come by bus or train.

Bring.—If it is at all possible, it has been requested that each person bring along one can of fruit (pears, peaches, plums, cherries or apricots) or some canned vegetable (corn, peas or beans). The cooperation of each person in this regard will help tremendously in solving the food ration problems.

How Youth Conference Began

Ten years ago a group of Taylor students left school to hold Sunday evening services in a nearby country church. After losing their way they were forced to ask for directions. Their "information bureaus" turned out to be several young people's societies which were in progress in the various churches passed.

Upon returning home the students counseled

with President Stuart as to the possibility of uniting these various groups into a general meeting on Taylor's campus. Thus the first Youth Conference was originated.

Since that time it has been an instrument in the hands of God for the spreading of the Gospel of Jesus Christ to hundreds of young people. Each year increasing numbers of typical American youth have accepted Christ as their Savior and many have completely yielded their lives for the full control of the Holy Spirit.
